Employment Opportunities

Fund Development Manager
The primary responsibility of this position is to oversee the development and management of a donor services program that includes annual giving and related relationship-building/cultivation activities focusing on individual giving at all levels. It includes lead roles in donor-related special events and promotional activities, such as community fundraisers, outreach promotions, etc. to support the annual fundraising plan.